Appomattox County Library

by Verna Conner

The Advisory Board of the Library met on Wed., June 11, and is pleased to announce that interest is being shown in various ways. Beautiful posters have been made by the art classes at the high school to advertise our organizational meeting. Plans were made to continue work on this so that by September we can have an overflow crowd.

You will hear much more about this later. Just keep in mind "September 8"

Dr. C. G. O'Brien was a guest of the Board and suggested a very interesting project, which will be made public at a later date.

Our library has always been fortunate in having so many donors of good books - some new and some used ones. This week we hit the Jackpot. Seven copies of the late Dr. Havilah Babcock's books were donated by his wife, Mrs. Alice Cheatham Babcock. The library possessed a copy of each book but deeply appreciates having new ones as the others are badly worn.

The names of the books are as follows: Tales of Quails and Such, My Health is Better in November, The Education of Pretty Boy, I Don't Want to Shoot an Elephant, Jaybirds Go to Hell on Friday, The Best of Babcock.

The six titles speak for themselves. Mrs. Babcock said her husband's health really was better in November. She also presented to the library a picture of her husband, which will be framed and hung in the library.

Dr. Babcock, who was a native of Appomattox was head of the English Department at the University of South Carolina in Columbia. He taught at William and Mary before going to South Carolina.

The seventh book is called "According to Hoyle" and is a glossary of idiomatic and Colloquial usage. To quote a passage in the Preface - "A tinker's dam" is not profane; "Lynch law" is no law at all but Jersey justice, which is no justice at all; Welsh Rabbit is destitute of rabbit, etc. It is a very entertaining book.

At long last the paperbook holder has arrived so when some man has time on his hands, please go to the library and offer your services. It came in sections and is really a man's job. Do you begin to get an inkling of why the library needs "Friends"?

Oh, by the way, the name of the book I couldn't think of last week is "Armageddon" by Leon Uris and is about the rehabilitation of post war Germany. It took courage and stamina to stay and help rebuild a country when one had lost two brothers in the war and all one really wanted to do was to go home.

A pleasant surprise recently was seeing Miss Julia Asher in town. She is always interested in anything pertaining to books and in my estimation was one of our best high school librarians. She is at present chairman of the Library Board of Trustees in Campbell County.

Church Calls Youth Director

The membership of the Bible Baptist Church recently extended a unanimous call to Rev. Glenn Benfield to come and serve as Youth Director and Minister of Visitation for the Bible Baptist Church of Appomattox, Virginia.

Rev. Benfield is a 1975 graduate of the Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Mo., and is a native of Raleigh, N.C.

Rev. Benfield plans to go to the Philippine Islands, in several years, as a missionary, meanwhile he is going to live and labor here in Appomattox while gaining experience and growing a little older, which is so expected among the Filipino people.

Mrs. Benfield is the former Miss Debra Faber of Miami, Florida. Debra is also a 1975 graduate of the Baptist Bible College. She attended school at the Dade Christian School in Miami, Fla.

The Benfields are newly weds. Pastor Lucas and the entire congregation, not only welcome them to our church and community but would like to extend to all of our many friends in the Appomattox area a cordial invitation to come by and visit with us and get acquainted with this fine young couple.
